

ICorr London Branch

March Meeting

13th March 2025 18:00-20:00 hours

Arrival 18:00-18:30 Hours

Refreshments will be provided

Presentation 18:30- 19:30

London Branch Chair: Paul Brooks

“Work / Life Balance”

Details of talk overleaf

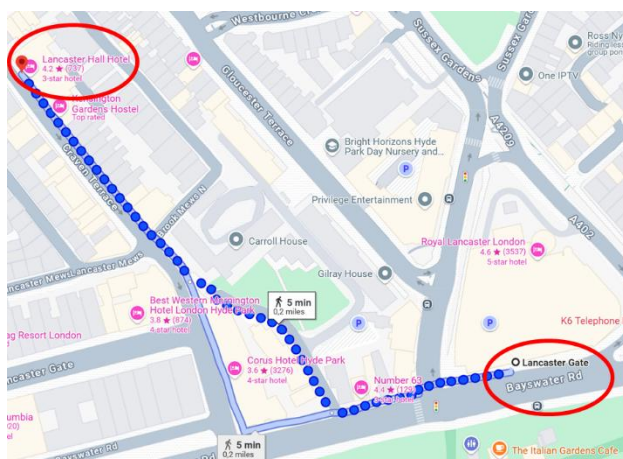

Après presentation 19:30-20:00 (or later)

Food and drinks

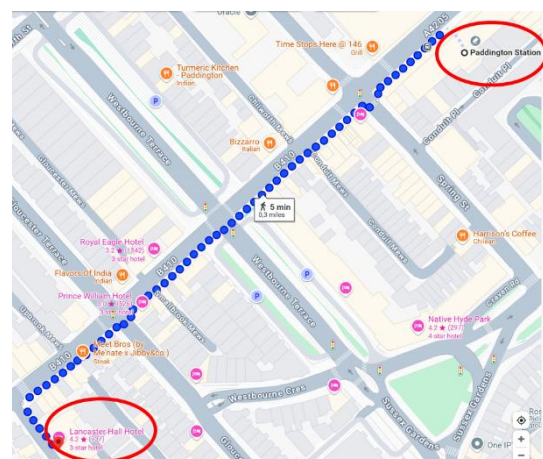

(After the meeting there will be opportunity to socialise at a local hostelry)

The venue: The York Room, Lancaster Hall Hotel
35 Craven Terrace
London
W2 3EL

Nearest Tube / Train Stations:
“Lancaster Gate” Station and “Paddington” Station.
Both approx. 5 mins walk

Route between the “Lancaster Gate”
Station and the Lancaster Hall Hotel

Route between the “Paddington”
Station and the Lancaster Hall Hotel

Speaker name: London Branch Chair: Paul Brooks

Presentation title: "Work / Life Balance"

Abstract

The London Branch AGM will take place at 18:15 followed by a talk by Paul Brooks current Institute of Corrosion London Branch Chair.

Paul will give a talk about "Work / Life Balance".

There will be some technical aspects and some intriguing points too!!!

This will be followed by a question and answer session.

Biography:

A seasoned professional with over 20 years of experience in Cathodic Protection Industry, engaged in project management, operations, and leadership within the oil and gas sector. Expertise in managing large-scale projects across the UK and overseas, fostering stakeholder engagement, and ensuring compliance with ISO standards. Proven success in delivering sustainable, efficient, and innovative solutions aligned with health & safety, and environmental excellence. Passionate about driving the energy transition, achieving net-zero goals and Retirement.

Qualifications:

- BSc (Hons) Science – Durham University
- NACE Senior Corrosion Technologist (AMPP)
- Member, Institute of Corrosion (MICorr)
- Bee Keeper